"For 3 1/2 years, the Highway Department has been free of political interference from the governor's office. That policy will continue as long as I am governor of Arkansas."

Publisher of Gazette to Be Honored

NEW YORK (AP) — John N. Heiskell, 65-year-old editor and president of the Pulitzer Prize-winning Arkansas Gazette, said today his paper's fight was "for law and order and obedience to the courts of the United States," not for integration as such.

Referring to the newspaper's stand during the Little Rock school integration crisis, Heiskell said, "In spite of material losses, vicious attacks and glaring misrepresentations, the Arkansas Gazette would make the same decision if met by the challenge again."

Heiskell's remarks were in a speech prepared for delivery at a luncheon of the Columbia Graduate School of Journalism.

Heiskell was designated yesterday as the recipient of the university's first Columbia Journalism Award. The new award is intended as an annual citation for singular journalistic performance in the public interest.

Earlier this month, the Gazette received the 1953 Pulitzer Prize for meritorious service. Its executive editor, Harry S. Ashmore, received the prize for editorial writing.

"I have always accepted full responsibility for the editorials that aroused resentment among people holding the more extreme views and brought different forms of vengeful retaliation upon us," Heiskell said, "but I am glad to give credit to Harry S. Ashmore, our chief editorial writer...and to Hugh B. Patterson Jr., our chief business executive, who stood steadfast as day by day he saw the paper suffer in material ways."

Heiskell said "I am convinced that our condemning of disorder and violence and defiance was interpreted by many people as advocating integration. Our paper's fight was not for integration as such."

Heiskell described the crisis as the creation of Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus. "I verily believe he acted with political purpose," Heiskell said, "specifically to generate an emotional issue for a campaign for a third term."

When National Guardsmen were ordered to prevent the Negro children from entering high school, Heiskell said, the stage was set for disorder.

Heiskell, who became editor of the Gazette in 1902 and still works a full week, was presented for the award by Maurice J. Moore, chairman of the university's trustees. Moore cited Heiskell's "record of devotion to high standards of journalistic responsibility through 50 years and through the historic crisis in his city."

Columbia President Dr. Grayson Kirk delivered the bronze plaque to Heiskell "in recognition of your devotion to vigorous, complete, literate journalism; your adherence to the ideal of the newspaper and its editor as the conscience of the community; and your courage in placing the principles of law and the dignity of man above all other considerations."

Unknowns Are Giving a Silent Tribute

By ELTON C. FAY and WARREN ROGERS JR.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gold Star mothers, foreign ambassadors and a hushed stream of plain Americans paid silent tribute today to the Unknowns of World War II and Korea.

None knew who they were, for they lost both their identities and their lives in the nation's two most recent wars. Tomorrow they will be interred alongside The Unknown Soldier of World War I at Arlington National Cemetery.

Today they lay in identical flag-draped bronze caskets on twin black catafalques in their place of honor in their nation's capital. Every half hour a new wreath was laid before them. Every hour the paper guard of all five services was changed, and constantly the people single-filed past them in mute homage at the rate of 1,200 an hour.

The people came into the vast, darkened rotunda with smiles reflecting the bright spring sunshine of the outdoors. But they quickly fell into the mood of mourning, blinked, looked around and shuffled past.

Huddled quietly to one side were three Gold Star mothers from Rhode Island—Mrs. Reginald Godfrey of Providence, Mrs. Charles Rittmann of Warwick and Mrs. Luke Moskalyk of West Warwick.

Their white, gold-trimmed uniforms contrasted with their drawn faces. Turned to the catafalque built to hold the remains of the martyred Abraham Lincoln, The Lady of the World War II Unknowns rested their

Guards Leave Central High School Today

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The last of almost 10,000 soldiers who enforced integration at Central High School were scheduled to go home today.

About 400 Arkansas National Guardsmen made final preparations for leaving Camp Robinson, where they have been billeted since last September to guard 9 Negro students enrolled at the school amid riots and unrest.

Some of them planned to go into the Regular Army.

Maj. Gen. Sherman T. Clinger, state adjutant, said about one-fourth of them had signed up.

The others will return to their homes and duty with their local National Guard units.

Their last official act as federal troops was to be paid.

The Army estimates the integration-duty operation cost four million dollars.

Whether troops will be back next fall is uncertain.

President Eisenhower says he will not send troops unless circumstances demand such action.

Seven of the nine Negroes who entered Central High last fall may return next September. One of the nine, Ernest Green, graduated. Another, Minnie Jean Brown, was expelled.

Whether they continue at Central High will be decided by U. S. District Court here, which is considering a petition by the School Board to delay integration for 2 1/2 years.

Gov. Orval Faubus says he will repeat his actions of last fall if the same situation arises.

Faubus called out National Guard troops to prevent entry of the Negroes. He said he did so because violence was imminent.

Later, the President sent in Regular Army troops and federalized the state Guardsmen.

The number of men on duty at the school gradually diminished today.

"The three of us had boys who went away to World War II and were never found," Mrs. Godfrey said. "We are trying to think that maybe that is our boy."

William R. Charlette of Key West, Fla., came to lay a wreath. He is the Navy Medal of Honor winner who selected the World War II Unknown at sea this week.

With him were three others who won the Medal of Honor in the Navy.

The four walked smartly to the center of the rotunda and laid a wreath before the caskets in the name of the Fleet Reserve Assn. Ambassadors Jose Marice de Arce of Spain and You Chan Yang of South Korea also laid wreaths. The Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Legion and business groups like Civitan International did, too.

Bond Okayed for Convicted Robbers

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Bonds of $10,000 each for release of two men convicted in Washington County of robbery were approved yesterday by the Arkansas Supreme Court clerk.

The bonds will be in effect pending appeals of Robert Miller and Tommy Groffo to the Supreme Court. Each man was sentenced to 10 years in prison.

The bonds were furnished by Ted Hood, Little Rock professional bondsman. Circuit Judge Mauph Cummings at Fayetteville had refused to approve Hood as surety. The Supreme Court last Monday authorized $10,000 bonds and left approval to its clerk.

Only the 400 who have been there in recent weeks were left. They were on full alert for graduation ceremonies Tuesday night.

Yesterday, only three men patrolled the school. One platoon, under the command of Lt. William Robinson, Pine Bluff, was kept on alert.

For the other men there was only the routine of checking in supplies.

DOROTHY DIX

Club's Confidence Shown By Election

Dear Dorothy Dix: I belong to a very active church group, and have always been a diligent worker. To my utter amazement the other ladies saw fit to elect me to office last week. I never expected such an honor. My pleasure soon turned to dismay however, when I realized I know nothing at all about holding office, or in fact, doing anything in public life. I've never made a speech in my life and would be sunk if I ever had to. Any help you can give me about my duties in office (secretary) would be appreciated.

Dear Toni: A wonderful new life has opened for you, and I'm sure you'll be the best secretary that club has ever had. The primary thing to remember is that from now on, the club comes first and you must do your utmost to maintain its standards. The ladies look to you for inspiration. They didn't elect you because you're a glamour queen or a quiz whiz; they chose you because you've been a good, cooperative worker. Continue and you won't disappoint them. If you are overcome with panic, bear in mind that you as an individual don't count; it's you as secretary that's important. Forget yourself, remember only the office.

You have what I think is the most difficult office to hold, but also the most interesting and rewarding. You'll have more work, probably, than your sister officers; I guess that's why you were elected. I have a leaflet that will help you. "Be A Good Club Member" outlines duties of various offices and gives the essence of parliamentary procedure, a most necessary adjunct to office holding. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to me, care of this newspaper, for it. Best of luck to the new secretary.

Dear Dorothy Dix: How can I will follow.

Miss Rae is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rae of Benton and is a graduate of Arkansas Baptist Nursing School in Little Rock. Mr. Burke is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burke of DeAnn and is at present employed in North Little Rock at Missouri Pacific Railroad shops. They will make their home in Little Rock.

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—Robert F. Seligson, acting head of the department of physical sciences at Arkansas State Teachers College, suffered a fatal heart attack while mowing his lawn yesterday. The 61-year-old educator had been here since 1933.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three men are eligible for the postmaster-in-chief at Clarksville, Ark., now held by L. West Wish. The Civil Service Commission said yesterday the men are Lawrence Myers, L. Kenneth King and Bernard C. Werner. Wish was not among the 12 applicants for the $5,250 a year job.

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—J. Wendell Henry, who had held a half dozen public offices here, died at a hospital yesterday. After suffering a heart attack Monday night, Henry, 59, had served as chairman of the Conway Board of Education and had held several other offices during the past 35 years.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Noble J. Gregory, barred out today after 22 years of serving the 1st dist. in Congress, he was one seniority step away from chairmanship of the House Ways and Means Committee.

Druggist Frank A. Stabelfield, backed by Democratic forces opposed the charge of the FBI at Little Rock, said Ardizzone is charged with forcing his way into a hotel room at Winston - Salem, N. C., and taking $87,000 in loot.

Ardizzone was held at Mississippi County Jail here. He is scheduled for a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Carson Bolte in Jonesboro.

Christopher Ardizzone, 26, put up no resistance when officers moved in on him. He had been sought since Nov. 12, 1957.

J. J. Casper, special agent in posed to Gov. A. B. Chandler, voted Gregory in Tuesday's Democratic primary by an unofficial margin of 433 votes.

The final tally, Stabelfield, 16, 302 votes; Gregory, 15,070.

The reversal was an exception in statewide voting.

Democratic Congressman Frank Chelf and Brent Spence were re-nominated and Republican Eugene Siler looked like a winner. Stabelfield will be opposed by Republican James O. Dandy of Hopkinsville in the November general election. Dandy has no opposition.

BERLIN (AP)—Communist East Germany today scrapped food rationing cards introduced by Hitler in 1939 and boosted the wages of over three million workers to help them pay higher food prices. West Germany scrapped the ration cards 10 years ago.

ROME (AP)—Final election returns made plain today the pro-Western Christian Democrats will continue to govern Italy, either in coalition with the "middle" center parties or with their support.

The balloting Sunday and Monday for a new Parliament left the political picture about the same.

When the new Parliament meets June 12, the Christian Democrats will be asked again to form a government. They have ruled since World War II.

They took 273 seats in the dominant 560-member Chamber of Deputies but can count on support of other center parties' 46 seats.

MOSCOW (AP)—An overflow crowd cheered the Philadelphia orchestra Tuesday night at its Moscow debut. The orchestra is touring western Russia as part of the new U. S.-Soviet cultural exchange program. All five concerts in Moscow are sold out.

CHAPTER 22

Luis was around the next morning at his usual time.

"More houses again today, Don Milo?" he asked.

"I don't think so, Luis," I said. "I think today we will visit your cousin Bernardo, the one who digs graves."

"He may not want to talk to you."

"He will if you tell him to and you'll tell him to for $25 a day," he started the car.

"Luis," I told him, "You are a businessman. You are worried about your $25 a day from me, your $10 a day from the taxi and your $50 a month from the police. If you can hold on to all three long enough, you will be richer than Toraldo."

"If Toraldo should hear you, he might take all three jobs away from me and do them himself."

"Outside of power and money," I said, "what is important to Toraldo?"

He thought for a minute. "It is said that he is so fond of his youngest son there is nothing he will not do for the boy. It is said that when he gets a letter from that son, he will interrupt the most important meeting to read it."

"Where is his youngest son?"

"In the United States. He goes to a military school there, but I do not know where. It is said that the youngest son is to succeed Toraldo when he dies."

We were soon stepping before a small house in the outskirts of the city. We got out of the car and went up to the door. Luis knocked. After an interval the door was opened and a tall, blond, gloomy-looking man stared out. He exchanged greetings with Luis without any change of expression.

"Don Milo," Luis said when we were drinking coffee, "is from the United States. He is interested in prisons and wishes to ask some questions about the prison of Santa Monica."

"Why not ask at the prison then?" Bernardo asked.

"I will carry out investigations there, too," I said, "but I'd like to ask you some questions. After all, you have a slightly different view of it."

"The graves are all well cared for," he said. "And I will bet they have more graves than almost any other prison."

"Do they put markers on them?" I asked.

"No markers, only numbers. I am told that in the office they have a chart showing who is buried at each number."

"Do you recall the number of the grave of the man you thought was Dr. Moreno?"

Bernardo glanced briefly at Luis; but that was his only reaction. "Yes," he said. "It was 2,987."

I made a mental note of the number. "Now," I said, "do you think you could draw me a rough plan of the prison?"

He shrugged. "Perhaps," he said. He went to get paper and pencil while Luis sat looking unhappy. Bernardo returned and labored over the paper.

He had drawn what looked like a fat V with a circle around it. "The circle," he explained, "is coming over to me, 'is the wall

Columbus Road to Be Finished by the State

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Bids will be opened by the state Highway Department June 11 on construction jobs totaling an estimated $6,750,000, a figure which may be a record for any one contract let.

The total was expected to reach 10 million dollars, but a highway department spokesman said bids on some jobs had to be held up because "light of way had not been obtained.

Bids were asked on 24 projects, including the superstructure of the new Arkansas River bridge at Little Rock.

The department does not release cost estimates on individual jobs, but a $33,000 bidder's bond will be required on the bridge job in contrast to bidder's bonds of as little as $1,000 on some other jobs.

The project must be completed in 347 working days after the contract is let.

Besides the Little Rock bridge, other jobs by counties will include:

Marion—Surfacing of 1.22 miles of U.S. Highway 78 in Clarendon.

Crittenden—Surfacing of 161 miles of surfacing on the West Memphis-Lake David Road, U.S.

Navy's Second Satellite Is a Failure

By BEN FUNK
CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The second of the Navy's latest satellite-sized satellites wound up today like the first—at the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean.

Fired aloft shortly before midnight by the Vanguard rocket, the 20-inch ball flew 2,000 miles out into space, then plunged back to earth.

Five hours of baffling silence followed the launching before Dr. John P. Hagen, director of Project Vanguard, announced that the 21½-pound sphere did not go into orbit.

The engines of the three-stage Vanguard all fired as expected, but the satellite was not boosted into a horizontal direction necessary to place it in orbit. Instead, it flew out in a wide arc, then fell back into the earth's atmosphere.

It was the fourth failure in five tries since the Vanguard rocket first was fired as a complete three-stage vehicle.

The first Vanguard expended four feet off its launching pad. The second blew apart 20,000 feet off the ground. The third launched Vanguard 1, the 3½-pound satellite now in orbit. The fourth fell into the sea.

By contrast, the Army has a record of two successes in three tries with its Jupiter-C satellite launching rocket which hurled the two Explorers into orbit.

Tuesday night's Vanguard launching appeared at the start to be perfect.

Within minutes, an optimistic Navy announcement said the engines in all three stages of the rocket had fired in proper sequence.

In quick succession thereafter, the satellite's signals were picked up at down-range listening posts in the Bahamas Islands and the British West Indies.

Then came a confusing silence. In San Diego, Calif., where radio receptions brought first word that the United States' three other satellites were in orbit and had completed their first trips around the earth, listeners waited in vain.

Hours after the launching, a baffled Vanguard spokesman in Washington said "we honestly don't know" if the sphere went into orbit.

"We've had an abnormal flight," said Dr. Richard W. Porter, chairman of the Vanguard satellite panel.

There had been high optimism here until the continued silence at San Diego blasted all hopes of a successful launching.

Beer is Served IN 2 OUT OF 3 AMERICAN HOMES

Beer, a light, bright beverage with definite nutritional value, has been a tradition in America for more than 300 years. Its popularity is greater today than ever before. A recent survey shows that beer is served in two out of three American homes and is now included in the government's Consumer Price Index, along with meat, fruits, vegetables and dairy products.

IN ARKANSAS... more and more families are discovering that beer, served moderately, adds zest and flavor to meals, especially those cooked out of doors. Beer, dispensed properly, is truly a refreshing beverage. The United States Brewers Foundation desires, sincerely, that beer will always be what it was intended to be—the light, bright beverage of moderation. That's why the Foundation works so closely with officials responsible for enforcement of the laws relating to the sale and use of beer and ale.

Yankees Drop Another-- But Still Unchallenged

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Quit crying in your beer, pal. The rest of the American League ain't dead after all.

Nobody is seriously challenging those New York Yankees yet, but it looks as though the Chicago White Sox and Detroit Tigers are through playing patsy, and Kansas City and Cleveland are serious about escaping the second division.

The A's, though 7½ games behind New York, padded their second-place cushion to a full game Wednesday—and they did it the hard way, coming from three runs back for a 4-3 victory over the Yankees.

Kansas City now has won four in a row, two over New York. The A's are 2½ vs. the Yankees so far, after losing 19 of 22 to them last year.

The Indians moved into third with a 5-2 victory over the Baltimore Orioles, who have lost seven straight. The White Sox hammered Washington 13-3 behind Jim Wilson's three-hit pitching.

The Tigers, who had lost nine in a row, won their fifth straight, beating Boston 4-2.

In the National League, the Santhroe on Walt Droop's home run.

Francisco Giants regained a two-game lead with three runs in the ninth that beat Philadelphia 7-6. St. Louis defeated second-place Milwaukee 7-4 in 12 innings. The Chicago Cubs beat Cincinnati 4-1, and Los Angeles trimmed Pittsburgh 7-1.

Rocky Colavito and Minnie Miñoso belted two-run homers for the Indians with Miñoso driving in three runs. Orioles ace Jack Harshbarger (5-3) lost his third in a row. Right-hander Cal McLish was the winner.

A pinch-hit two-run homer by Galt Harris won it in the ninth for the Tigers and Frank Lary (5-4), who gave 10 hits but blanked the Red Sox after Lou Berberet's first homer in the second inning. Willard Nixon lost his fifth. The Tigers tied it on Billy Martin's two-run single in the fifth.

Tito Francona drove in five runs with his first homer, a triple and a double for the Sox, who hit their highest run total since beating Cleveland 11-4 last July 5. The Sox, winning six of their last seven, chased loser Chuck Stobbs with five in the first, then scored five more in the second, beating Boston 4-2.

In the National League, the Santhroe on Walt Droop's home run.

Scanlon Outclasses Chicago's Rogers

CHICAGO (AP) — Lightweight Bobby Scanlon, who cut classes at City College of San Francisco to score a unanimous 10-round decision over Chicago's Bobby Rogers Wednesday night, is a bit uncertain about his plans for the ring.

"The only plans I have right now," said Scanlon, who remains undefeated in 20 fights, "are to visit my friends in my home town in Buffalo. Then, I'm going into the California National Guard at Camp Roberts for several weeks."

Scanlon, 22, a freshman student in physical education, made his national television debut in his lightweight bout with Rogers, also 22.

The young West Coast sensation now has scored 18 decisions and 10 knockouts. There is one draw on his record.

Neither Scanlon nor Rogers landed any telling blows up until the ninth. Then Scanlon staggered Rogers with his right and pumped him almost at will.

Scanlon weighed 133½ to Rogers' 134.

Cardinals Come From Behind to Beat Braves

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

They may have the best pitching in the league, but the failure to find a replacement for some-armed Bob Buhl has been one reason the Milwaukee Braves haven't been able to take charge of that National League pennant race.

Another reason is the San Francisco Giants.

But the Giants wouldn't have much more than a percentage-point edge if Manager Fred Haney could find another starter who could get the job done.

He tried Gene Conley again Wednesday night, had to hoist the big righthander in a comeback rally and finally wound up with a 7-4 defeat in 12 innings by the St. Louis Cardinals.

That plunked the Braves two games behind San Francisco again as the Giants scored three in the ninth for a 7-4 victory at Philadelphia. The Chicago Cubs rapped Cincinnati 6-4 with Ernie Banks' cracking a pair of home runs. Los Angeles trimmed Pittsburgh 7-1.

In the American League, second-place Kansas City gained its first series sweep over New York, beating the first-place Yankees 4-3, Detroit won its fifth in a row, beating Boston 4-2. Cleveland took third place, defeating Baltimore 5-2. The Chicago White Sox belted Washington 13-3 behind Jim Wilson's three-hit pitching.

A two-run homer by rookie Willie Kirkland capped the Giants' ninth inning sport after Ray Jablonski's two-run homer had given them a 4-1 tie in the seventh. Banks, driving in three runs and taking the NL RBI lead with 37, broke up Bob Purkey's perfect game with his first homer, setting off a three-run fifth. Then he counted two with his 11th homer as the Cubs scored three more in the sixth off losing reliever Johnny Klippstein.

The Dodgers counted a dozen hits off seven-game winner Bob Friend, who lost his third, and three relievers.

Good Weather in Prospect for Speedway

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The Weather Bureau offered 10-1 odds today for good weather at the start of the 42nd 500-mile auto race Friday but said chances were only 6-1 that the gasoline classic won't be interrupted by rain.

A possibility of 70-degree temperature—prime for fueling the wear and saving fuel—cheered drivers called together by Chief Steward Harlan Fongler for their annual instruction meeting.

Fongler outlined a new lineup procedure and explained there is only a slim possibility that an alternate will get into the lineup.

No alternates will be used unless disabling mechanical defects are discovered among the 33 qualified cars before 8:30 a. m. Friday, when all engines must be turned off until the race starts.

Last year's start under a new system was fouled up so badly that two cars were wrecked before they reached the starting line.

After numerous wrecks in the 1956 race, including one in the pits, the pits were moved away from the track and behind a concrete retaining wall.

The new arrangement did away with the old system of wheeling cars out of their pits and lining them up in 11 three-car rows before the engines were started.

The drivers started the engines in their pits, then scrambled into the proper order as the pace car made a parade lap.

The flaw in the system was that the cars in the half-mile row of pits were not arranged in starting order. Friday the cars will be lined up in proper order, single file, on the pit apron.

According to Miss E. L. Ford, assistant H. D. agent, the women and 4-H Club girls did a very nice job on the articles exhibited.

The program for the affair was a quarterly home demonstration council meeting at which time Mr. M. M. Harris, Fieldman, Negro activities of the Farm Bureau was guest speaker. He delivered his speech to the Farmers Association and the Home Demonstration Council.

The information was very inspiring and was enjoyed by all. Mr. A. L. Duffie, president of the local Negro Farm Bureau organization made remarks in connection to the speech.

The judges for the Bread and Dress Show were: Mrs. Ruth Muldrow and Mrs. Lillie Mae Doss, Assistant Home Demonstration Agents for Negro in Clark and Nevada counties, who did a splendid job of judging the articles.

You should know this about baking...

It's the balance of ingredients in baking powder that governs its leavening action. Only when these are scientifically balanced can you be sure of uniform action in the mixing bowl plus that final, balanced rise to light and fluffy texture in the oven.

Soldiers Are Never Left Unattended

By FRANCES LEWING

WASHINGTON (AP)—Never for a moment in 21 years—despite wars, storms, heat or cold—has America's Unknown Soldier of World War I been left unattended.

A 24-hour vigil has been kept at this tomb since 1937 as a sacred trust. Prior to that, from the establishment in 1921, an honor guard had stationed watch only in daylight.

The nation, for which this unidentified man gave his life, picks the best of its Army infantrymen for the signal honor of walking a lonely post in a cemetery with 97,000 dead.

Through the years, the routine has become rigid.

In one hour, the sentry at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Sunday from Dallas and is at home in the Mrs. Fred Powell apartment.

Billy Hirst Ingram of San Diego Calif. has been the guest of relatives and was accompanied home by James Harold Ingram who will spend the summer there.

Arlington National Cemetery can be clocked walking his post just 42 times.

The cadence is 128 steps per minute. The sentry takes 21 steps from one end of the post to the other and pauses at each end. He carries a .30 caliber M-1 rifle with a chrome-plated bayonet. He wears Army dress uniform—blue in winter, tan tropical worsted in summer—and white gloves.

None of this routine will be changed when two more unknown servicemen are buried nearby on Friday.

The 3rd Infantry Regiment at nearby Ft. Myer mans this post. Infantrymen from units all over the world are sent here to try out for the honor guard.

None of the candidates can have any physical disability or disciplinary action on his record. A tomb guard must be between 5 feet 11 and 5 feet 2.

At least two months and perhaps five months of special training at Ft. Myer precedes assignment to the sentry post.

A sergeant and four men make up each 24-hour daily tomb shift.

During periods that Arlington is open, guards are changed hourly. At night, and when the cemetery is closed, the shifts run two hours.

When the weather is bad or while ceremonies are taking place the guard stands in either of two sentry boxes nearby at parade rest.

Four Sentenced in Gang Slaying

NEW YORK (AP)—Four youths convicted in the gang killing of a 15-year-old police officer today received sentences ranging up to a possible maximum of life imprisonment for two of them.

Terms of 20 years to life were ordered for Charles Horton, 18, a Negro, and Louis Alvarez, 17, a Puerto Rican, who were found guilty of second degree murder.

Leroy Birt, 19, a Negro, was sentenced to 7 1/2 to 15 years. Leoncio de Leon, 17, a native of the Dominican Republic, got 5 to 15 years. They were convicted on second degree manslaughter counts.

Three other teen-age defendants were acquitted in the case, which grew out of a fatal attack on young Michael Farber in a park. Trial testimony depicted him as an innocent victim in feuding between two teen-age gangs.

In pronouncing sentence, General Sessions Judge Irwin D. Davidson said he felt a sense of frustration because the trial neither solved nor provided any answer to a major problem of the times.

German Official to Visit U. S.

BONN, Germany (AP)—West German President Theodor Heuss left by plane today for the first visit to America by a German man chief of state.

The 74-year-old President will visit Canada and the United States. He arrives in Washington June 4.
